

Accelerate Innovation: Sponsor the GeoParquet San Francisco Community Day

The Cloud-Native Geospatial Foundation is proud to have Wherobots the convening sponsor for our inaugural GeoParquet Community Day, set to take place in San Francisco, CA on January 30, 2024.

Wherobots' support plays a pivotal role in making this event a reality. Their commitment to advancing geospatial technologies aligns with our vision for the GeoParquet Community Day, and we are grateful for their partnership.

We seek additional sponsors to join Wherobots in making this event as inclusive and impactful as possible. These sponsors will play a crucial role in two key areas: funding travel scholarships for those facing financial barriers and growing the GeoParquet community.

Our sponsorship philosophy has always been rooted in a 'pay it forward' approach. Any surplus funds generated from this event will be reinvested to bootstrap future events, ensuring this standard's long-term sustainability and growth. Additional surplus funds from this event will also support early efforts of Radiant Earth's newly established Cloud-Native Geospatial Foundation. This work will include international webinars, developing educational materials, and organizing in-person events focused on cloud-native geospatial formats.

Join us in shaping the future of geospatial data by becoming a sponsor of the GeoParquet Community Day!
